

PLAN OF ACTION OF INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION IN SOUTH AMERICA

FINAL VERSION

OBJETIVOS GENERALES	OBJETIVOS ESPECIFICOS	LINEAS DE ACCION PROPUESTAS	TAREAS REQUERIDAS
Definition and coordination of strategies and regional programs in the migratory scope.	Promote the human rights of migrants and their families.	Develop actions focused to protect and defend the human right of migrants and their families. Prevention and actions against the illegal traffic of people.	Applying and implementing agreements and resolutions of human rights International Organizations, in aspects related to the human rights of migrants and their families. Each government has to develop the application state of these measures in each country. Collection and systematization of the nationalist initiatives (governmental and non-governmental) of human rights promotion and defense. Exchange of governmental initiatives about the implementation and applying of the Inter-American Convention of International Traffic of Children.
	Strengthening of the governability of the regional migratory flows Development of national and bi-nationals migratory regulatory programs for migrants and their families.	Transit frontier allowance. People transit allowance within the region. Regularization of irregular migratory situation of migrants.	Governments, with the support of IOM, implement a technical program for identifying and quantifying irregular migrants in countries with a high quantity of immigration. Arrangement and implementation of reciprocal agreements among governments for the applying of amnesties and/or migratory regularization in the region.
	Entail the national people abroad with their countries of origin and support the decision of returning them.	Removing or identifying the partnerships of the South American national people that live abroad.	Design of methodologies, which allow the entailment and re-entailment, in an environment of mutual trust, of the national people living abroad with their communities and countries of origin.

		Characterization of the national people living abroad. Strengthening webs among national people living abroad and their countries of origin. Study of a system for sending remittances, which assures privacy, security and a fair manner for migrants and their families.	Elaborate a methodology which allows the compilation and systematization of the information related to the organizations of migrants living abroad. Develop a proposal for the methodology of identification and characterization of national people living abroad. Report of experiences about compilation of information, initiatives of attention and of organizations of the residents living abroad. Design and arrange, in a coordinate way with the academic fields, tele-educational programs for national people living out of the region. The organizations and international financial institutions must develop a study of the remittances process and design a system for sending remittances with fairer and less onerous administrative costs. Request cooperation for developing a Workshop for the people responsible of the programs of national people living abroad.
	Promotion of the integration and insertion of migrants in the countries of destination.	Foment of integration and insertion of migrants in welcome communities through public and private actions and initiatives. Formulate, apply and develop promotions programs of migrant rights and duties.	Governments, with the help of IOM, ILO and ECLAC, would generate information and spreading media about migrants rights and duties especially in labor matters. Governments, Churches, and organizations, would promote the participation of the community in the creation of actions related to the welcoming of migrants.
Consolidation and development of the South American Observatory on Migrations.	Permanent strategic information generation for the decision-making process on migratory matters.	Design and development of a Regional Net of Information of Migrations. Generation of information for the decision-making process of Governments on migratory matters.	Support the generation of aspects related to national coordination between bidders and plaintiffs of migratory information. Elaboration of periodical reports on diverse aspects of migratory processes.

		Development of the OSUMI (South American Observatory of Migration) Observatory Portal. Establishment of extra regional information nets. Strengthening of CIMAL (Information Center of Migration in Latin America).	Generation and implementation of a permanent information and communication system for governments about news and documents that have entered OSUMI (South American Observatory of Migration). Each government will send the information about policies, programs and legal texts on migration periodically generated by each country to CIMAL (Information Center of Migration in Latin America).
Harmonization and coordination of migratory information systems.	Having current and permanent knowledge about the intra regional and extra regional migratory processes.	Support quality development of continuous migratory statistics. Attendance to the processing and analysis of data on migratory flows. Development of methodological strategies that widen the knowledge on migratory processes.	Identify obstacles and develop, together with the technical support of the IOM and other international organisms, methodologies that increase quantity and quality of the information on behalf of governments, as well as the generation of comparative and compatible migratory statistics.
Harmonization and coordination of migratory administrations.	Up-dating of migratory national administrations.	Reinforcement and up-dating of training systems for the migratory personnel and/or personnel linked to the migratory administration through a program that conveys the need of each country within the region.	Spread and strengthen the formation system (courses, workshops, programs via internet and /or national and/or regional schools) on regional migratory policies and matters. Creating, together with relevant international organizations, a program which allows coordinating the different activities which are currently under execution on migration training, and which will strengthen migratory institutionality and that includes the diverse participants involved in the migratory management.

		Exchange of information on advances of modernization in the migratory administration. Spreading and informing migrants about migratory contents, policies and programs. Development of coordination programs for technical and operative decisions between governments' central scopes and bordering areas. Arranging the Second South American Forum on Education for Migrations.	Develop periodical meetings to migratory authorities, as well as, consular authorities in South America. In order to exchange experiences, coordinate the applying of migratory policies and programs, develop work meeting among consuls of South American countries. Develop the Second South American Forum on Education for Migrations, in a country of the Andean Region, which will follow up conclusions and recommendations of the First Forum and that formulates a working plan.
	Establishment of a permanent coordination system of the migratory national administration in the region.	Creation of a regional coordination and consulting web for the migratory administration. Assure intergovernmental coordination for the management, functioning and follow up of agreement and tasks emanating from the Conference.	Elaborate a proposal for generating an information, communication, management and debate virtual net among regional governments. Establish coordination mechanisms within each country that allows the follow up, coordination and implementation of agreements and tasks emanating from the Conference.
Harmonization and coordination of the migratory legislation.	Coordinated up-dating of the national legislation.	Harmonization of migratory categories and of visas.	Identifying, through the region states, priorities on harmonization of migratory categories and of visas.
	Multilateral Treaties.	Cooperation for developing sub regional treaties on migration in the Andean Community and Mercosur.	Monitoring the ratification and applying of the international convention for the protection of rights of every migrant worker and their families.
	Bilateral Treaties.	Cooperation for developing, up-dating and applying bilateral treaties signed among the regional countries and these with other extra regional countries.	